

SAM KOPANSKY

DIRECTOR OF ENGINEERING

PERSONAL PROFILE

I'm a passionate, collaborative, technical leader who facilitates a community-driven team culture. My leadership style is rooted in transparency and trust. I care deeply about creating simple, relevant technical solutions and enabling teams to work unencumbered. In my personal life, I'm an avid woodworker and astronomy nerd

EDUCATION

University of Pittsburgh
Computer Engineering
Bachelor of Science, 2016

SKILLS

- AI enablement, Agile/Scrum, transparency, conflict resolution, technical hiring, remote team cohesion, customer engagement
- AI & Spec Driven Development, React, Node, Typescript, Ruby, SSO/OAuth, Javascript, SQL, Java, Python, HTML/CSS, Snowflake

WORK EXPERIENCE

Director of Engineering, Arcadia Power
2022 - PRESENT

- Started in 2022 as EM and promoted twice to Director of Eng
- Lead a global org of 40 remote ICs and managers delivering an industry-leading utility data API + Solutions platform
- Guide technical vision to modernize codebase, enable AI-driven development, and support rapid scaling
- Architected backend migration process that rescued Fortune 500 customer relationship, improving account transfer success rates from 50% to 95%+ across 500k accounts
- Built usage-based utility billing API and finance reporting, including NACHA/ACH processing and Stripe integration
- Led developer experience overhaul reducing CI/CD from 90+ to <30 minutes and eliminating 100s of weekly on-call alerts
- Introduced and drove adoption of Claude Code and Cursor

Full Stack Software Engineer, Quartet Health
2017 - 2022

- Architected and led implementation of patient intake forms, patient portal, and HIPAA-compliant chat platform
- Led execution and launch of Quartet's first external-facing API
- Drove re-platforming to industry-standard Java backend
- Promoted to EM in 2021 and managed development of 7 directs

Adjunct Professor, University of Pittsburgh
2016 - 2017

- Instructed an Intro to Python course with 50 students
- Received a 4.8/5 on ratemyprofessor.com from my students